Tuesday 22nd November 2022
At the Sparkle Horse.

Present -Fiona McLeod, Tom Malone, Gordon McCracken, Ross Ritchie, Susie Taylor, Ian Watson.
Apologies – Sally Nicholson

2. Matters Arising.

Decathlon voucher still available as not claimed at Tall Ship event in September.

Many thanks expressed to journalist Cate Devine for excellent article about GCRC in latest edition of 'Glasgow West End Today'

IW reported that we are still undecided of a use for donated rudder from Bob Jardine.

TM and FMcL still keen to get across using 'Wordpress' to help develop the club website.

Noted that former GCRC member Jen Stout is currently reporting for BBC radio in Ukraine.

3. Finance and Membership

IW reported no new members, and budget still on target for the end of the financial year.

Still awaiting bank codes and card for RR to take over treasurer role.

4. Maintenance

TM updated the committee on maintenance tasks. Kelvin Kelpie back in water, and this week he will refit cleats.

Ovre the winter he will focus energies on the clubhouse barge. Big issue is to get it level.

TM reported that a grant application by Tall Ship may include an element for refurbishing the barge.

The club would look forward to positively engaging with any such proposal.

5.Spond Club Management Tool

IW encouraged all members to get into accessing club bookings, and any admin and management matters via Spond.com.

6. AOB

Automatic lifejackets are out of date and need to replace the firing heads. RR to arrange a session to assess and replace heads.

FMcL did a recent talk about GCRC for members of the Glenmore Club – walking group.

Committee reminded of new time of year for AGM. Members please keep the date free for AGM on Thursday 19th January 2023. Location to be confirmed.

7. Next Meeting

Thursday 12th January at Sparkle Horse – 5.30pm
